Foreword

May we, THE SPARTAN Staff, take you on "A Sentimental Journey" back through the year 1962-'63 at Central to recall beloved and cherished memories of the moments we spent as students within the walls and on the campus of Central High School.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1963, do with deepest love and gratitude dedicate this, the 1963 edition of THE SPARTAN, to you, MR. CLAYTON SWICEGOOD, our loyal teacher, advisor, and friend. The memory of the kindness and helpfulness which you have displayed toward each of us will remain in our hearts and minds forever.

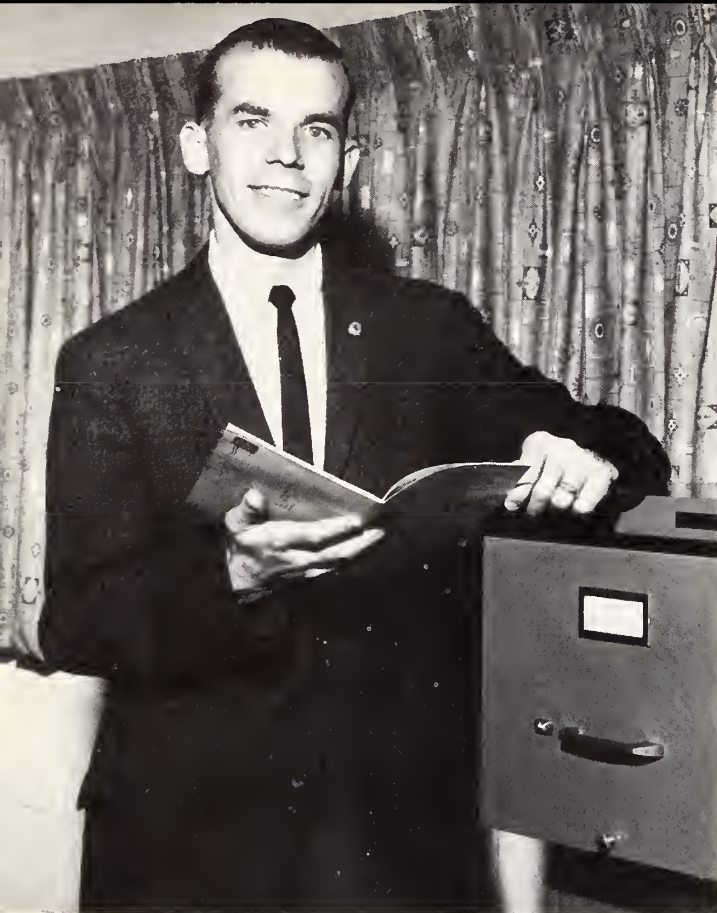

In Memory of

Elizabeth Eve Lohr

With affection and admiration we remember Eve whose ceaseless courage, faith, and warm smile were an inspiration to us, the students and faculty of Central High School.

Mr. Patrick Harrison Assistant Principal Guidance Counselor

To Mr. Harrison, we extend a most hearty "thanks" for helping us in our search for the paths which we will travel after our graduation. Your advice and encouragement have been extremely valuable to all of us. Thank you for your time and patience.

Mrs. C. A. Michael, Jr. Secretary

Thank you, Mrs. Michael, for the many services which you have so graciously rendered to the students, faculty, and guests of Central High School. You have certainly contributed much to our school.

Mrs. Susan S. Hedrick Dean of Girls

Mrs. Hedrick,

As the first Dean of Girls at Central, you have done an excellent job. We girls are very grateful to know that there is someone who is especially interested in our problems and upon whom we can rely for help and good advice. Thank you.

Mr. D. H. Young, Principal

Mr. Young,

We, the Seniors, give to you our deepest appreciation for making our last year at Central a most happy and beneficial one. Not only for your interest in us are we grateful, but for your ceaseless efforts to better our school. We say, "thanks", to you, a man whom we regard with the utmost esteem.

Faculty

As students of Central High School we say, "Thank-you" to you, the members of our fine faculty. We are deeply indebted to each of you for the knowledge which we have received under your instruction and guidance and for the numerous opportunities which you have opened unto us. We feel that there is no better faculty anywhere.

Class History

Taking a "Sentimental Journey" back through the past four years, we remember a day back in 1959 when our eager class became green freshmen. We were very enthusiastic and hoped to accomplish a great deal in our four years at Central High School.

We began our journey as freshmen. Our leaders were: Miss Susan Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Bruff, Mr. Don Allred, Mrs. Eddie Myers, and Mr. Hayden Thomas. The class officers were: President, Jim Graham; Vice-President, Larry Crotts; Secretary, Carethia Burkhart; Treasurer, Howard Regan; and Reporter, Marie Leonard. We were fortunate in having Pamela Young from our class crowned Miss Coble Dairy. One of our homerooms came in second place in the World's Finest Chocolate Drive.

At the end of our second year, our journey was half finished. We were under the leadership of: Mrs. J. R. Brendell, Mrs. Paul Yarborough, Mrs. Eugene Cooper, and Mr. Wayne Hoover. Our class officers were: President, Larry Crotts; Vice-President, Terry Conrad; Secretary, Sherrill Younts; Treasurer, Howard Regan; and Reporter, Bobby Swing. This year our "World's Finest Chocolate Drive Homeroom" won first place in the candy drive.

The following year almost completed our journey. We were under the leadership of: Miss Rhonda Robbins, Miss Susan Stewart, Mr. Pat Harrison, and Mr. Reginald Moore. Our class officers were: President, Jim Graham; Vice-President, Larry Crotts; Secretary-Treasurer, Larry Garner; and Reporter, Roddy Penry. This was the most difficult year of our journey and perhaps the most enjoyable. Under the direction of Miss Susan Stewart our Junior sponsors helped us to give a very successful Junior-Senior Prom. "Evening in Paris" was used as the theme. Everyone enjoyed the prom and went home with many memories. This year our "World's Finest Chocolate Drive Homeroom" won second place once again. Our class was represented in the Lexington Christmas Parade this year by Diane Thomas who was Central's Miss Christmas Queen. Our Marshals were Lynne Poole, chief, Diane Byerly, Jim Graham, Tamara Kearns, Roddy Penry, Venice Queen, Tony Beck, Sylvia Crotts, June Queen, and Kathy Hatley. Receiving our class rings was another high light of our junior year.

We entered the last phase of our journey feeling quite superior and with anticipation for the coming events. As seniors our leaders were: Miss Nancy Potts, Mrs. A. B. Hall, and Mr. Clayton Swicegood. Our class officers were: President, Roddy Penry; Vice-President, Larry Garner; Secretary, Jim Graham; Treasurer, Lynne Poole; and Reporter, Gaynell Eddinger. This year our "World's Finest Chocolate Drive Homeroom" was not so fortunate for they received the "Booby Prize" in the candy drive. We were represented in local events by several attractive queens, Sandra Hunt reigned as our representative to the Miss Davidson County Contest and Tournament Queen; Tamara Kearns appeared as Miss Veteran's Day Queen; Vivian Church was chosen Miss Dairy Princess, and Evelyne Copley was our Miss Civinette. Our senior year was highlighted by many memorable occasions: our Junior-Senior Prom, our senior trip, and, of course, graduation.

Now, graduation is finally here; we all view it with mixed emotions. Some are reluctant to leave; others are not. As we leave school, we would like to express our gratitude to all those who have made our education possible. We have sincerely tried during our brief stay here to make the best of our opportunities, and we hope we have inspired in others the will to do the same. Now, as our journey has come to an end, we say good-bye to dear ole CHS with memories of happy days never to be forgotten.

A Dream Come True

When the Central Spartan's Athletic Field was completed and put into use last Fall, 1962, a dream of long standing was realized. Nearly six years ago, many interested students, teachers, and patrons of Central began this dream which before many months, took the form of something more than a dream—something real. We watched the big machines at work leveling the ground, we complained of the noise outside our classroom windows, we sneezed the dust from our noses, but all the while there was a "smile in our hearts", for we visualized a future field such as we have now.

The men and women of the Athletic Boosters' Club spent many long hours working to raise funds to pay for the field and the equipment. Chicken barbecues were held, seat cushions were sold, and solicitations were made. In the afternoons when the men had finished their day's work on the job, they gathered at the school and worked many long hours to help make this dream a reality.

Finally the day came. It was September, 1962. The weather was fine, the bleachers were filled to overflowing, the lights brightly illuminated the Spartan team as they raced onto the field and defeated the opponents with a kind of enthusiasm that they had never shown before. This was the opening night! The dream had become a reality.

Homeroom Representatives

The Student Organization at Central High School is composed of four different branches; they are the following; The executive board, the class representatives, the committee chairmen, and a representative from each of the nineteen homerooms. The principal responsibility of the homeroom representative is to keep his homeroom informed of the decisions and actions which are made by the Student Organization. Each representative represents his homeroom and brings before the Student Organization any business that the homeroom would like discussed. Another function of the homeroom representative is to sell tickets to his or her homeroom for such events as the Student Organization may sponsor.

Jackie Smith, Cheryl Porter, Donna Beck, Dawn Hill, Mittie Jo Ball, Tanya Skabo, Linda Lohr, Sandra Leonard, Sandra Leonory, Sandra Hunt, Gay Nell Eddiger, Phyllis

Committee Chairmen

The seven committees of the Student Organization at Central High School have, directly or indirectly, a part in almost every activity at Central High School.

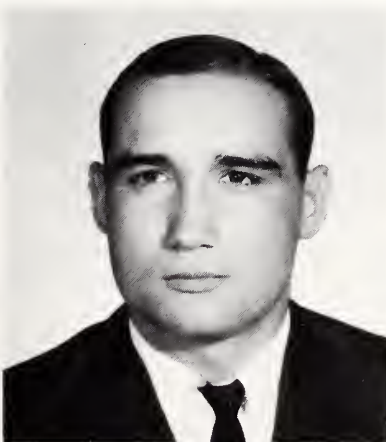

The committees are responsible for such things as follows: the Public Relations Committee greets the visitors when they arrive at the school and sends a representative to Teen Time; the Assembly Committee arranges all group meetings; the Personal Relations Committee serves the basketball players and referees refreshments; the Recreation Committee supervises the Spring Dance, the "sock hops" and helps other organizations with dances; the Traffic and Safety Committee supervises group parking and fire drills; the Citizenship Committee checks the lunch line and sponsors other programs to improve citizenship; and the Scholarship and Attendance Committee combines the A Honor Roll and Distinction List.

The National Honor Society is an organization which honors its members through the recognition of their scholastic ability as well as of their leadership, service, and character. Induction to this organization is one of the highest achievements that can be attained by a student in any high school.

The National Honor Society has many functions and performs many services. The main project of the National Honor Society at Central is its annual White Christmas Drive. This drive helps create a happy and meaningful Christmas for many needy families in the surrounding communities. It is made possible by the contribution of students and friends of Central High School.

The Junior Civitan and Junior Civinette Clubs at Central are sponsored by the Central Carolina Civitan Club. These two clubs are service clubs which work together for the betterment of Central High School and the Central Community.

Among other projects the Junior Civitan Club publishes annually the Student Directory and gives a copy to each student. Each year the Junior Civinettes sponsor a project which will both aid the students and raise money toward their long-standing project, the purchasing of an organ for our school.

The highlight of the year for Junior Civitans and Junior Civinettes is the Installation Banquet which is given in the fall with the help of Central Carolina Civitan Members.

The Future Teachers of America is an organization which enables young people who feel they are interested in a teaching career to investigate thoroughly all of the opportunities in this field. As the members discover the facts about teaching they are more able to decide whether they will definitely choose teaching as their career. The members of the Future Teachers of America encourage among their fellow classmates a more serious interest in education. During National Education Week this club makes all-out effort to acquaint parents and community members with their school and its activities.

The members of the Library Assistants Club are students who have been trained in the methods of operating an efficient library. These students help the librarian in keeping records, organizing books in their proper order, and in assisting other students in the selection of books.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America Club encourages young girls throughout our nation to take a more active interest in homemaking. The girls enrolled in this club are those who have had classroom training in this field. The Central Future Homemakers of America Club is active in both school and community affairs.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America Club is a nation-wide organization. Its objective is to train young boys in the skills of farming and construction. The Future Farmers of America Chapter at Central has compiled an outstanding record in such contests as land judging, beef and swine judging, cattle judging and parliamentary procedure.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club is very active in school assemblies and P. T. A. programs. This group not only gives entertaining performances, but their programs are written by the Dramatics Club members, themselves. Their most outstanding assembly is the Christmas pageant, which is given each year for the entire student body.

This club has a limited membership of approximately forty students. Tryouts are held each fall to choose the most talented students.

We, THE SPARTAN Staff, hope that our review of the year 1962-63 has been for you a true "Sentimental Journey," recalling all the excitement of our past year at Central. May we leave you with one sincere wish for your continued happiness:

MAY THE GOOD LORD BLESS AND KEEP YOU

May the Good Lord bless and
Keep you,
Whether near or far away.
May you find that long-awaited
Golden Day, today.
May your troubles all be small ones,
And your fortune, ten times ten.
May the Good Lord bless and
Keep you 'till we meet again.

May you walk with sunlight shining,
And a bluebird in every tree.
May there be a silver lining
Back of every cloud you see.

Fill your dreams with sweet
Tomorrow.
Never mind what might have been.
May the Good Lord Bless
And keep you
'Till we meet again.
